What is expected of me during the Retreat?

The Meditation Centre is a mandala or Buddha field. Performing a retreat with focused practice led by Rinpoche in a mandala is indeed a rare opportunity. Let us treasure this opportunity and create a mutually supportive learning environment by following some basic principles:

- (1) be prepared to renounce to comfort,
- (2) practice mindfulness and compassion,
- (3) be open and non-judgmental,
- (4) ask questions if in doubt,
- (5) be engaged in voluntary work,
- (6) always be thankful and rejoice,
- (7) follow instructions as given and practice wholeheartedly,
- (8) be punctual and diligent.

Participants must switch off their mobile phones or other electronic devices during the Retreat. Only stay within the restricted area. Please focus on your practice.

Accommodation & Meals

Stay in dormitory-style accommodation with bunker beds (include mattress, bedsheet and pillow only, NO blanket provided) and shared common toilets and showers (cold water only). Men and women will stay in separate areas, to the extent practicable.

All food served will be vegetarian during this retreat. If you have any food allergy, please inform us in advance. You are also encouraged to prepare your own utensils, mug (for hot drinks) and water bottle so as to reduce the amount of garbage collected.

Children attending Retreat

As advise from Rinpoche, the retreat is only open to children 13 years old and above.

Parents whom have registered for children below 13 years old would have already been informed by the organisers. For further questions, please feel free to reach out to us.

All participants are encouraged to wear white t-shirts during the Retreat. Bure and Tangju should be worn by participants who have taken refuge.
